3. Communicate the instructions to your group:

Clearly explain the items to be included and excluded from the backpacks. Emphasize the goal of bringing joy to the children through an unexpected surprise.

4. Distribute

Pass out backpacks among all who are participating. Instruct each person to fill the backpacks according to the provided instructions sheet sent separately. Share the importance of filling each backpack so the children dont feel they have been let out

4. Set a deadline for backpack collection:

Inform your group the date the filled backpacks should be returned to the church as they will be delivered to RABMIN between November 27th and December 8th..

5. Collect payment for shipping and tax:

The cost to ship and pay the Costa Rican Customs tax is $12 for each backpack. We request to have one check or online payment to Rice and Beans Ministries.

6. Provide payment instructions:

Clearly communicate the payment process to your group not to submit a payment directly to RABMIN but only through the church or group.

7. Coordinate backpack collection :

Designate a central location for the return of the filled backpacks. Appoint volunteers or individuals to receive the backpacks and confirm the number received.

8. Celebrate the success:

Once the backpacks have reached their destination, celebrate the successful completion of the Go Live Love Gifts project for 2023.

9. Share the joy:

We will share stories, photos, or videos of the children receiving the backpacks on our social media and in our newsletter.Each of the participating churches or groups can share the impact of their contributions.
